A special offer for you

Dear <Salutation>,

We are all living through an extraordinary set of circumstances. News changes constantly, and here at Newsday, journalists are working around the clock to keep you informed. In times like these, Newsday works tirelessly to provide an essential public service by keeping our readers up to date, our local government accountable and our community safe.

But we can't do our job without you. Serious journalism is not free, and now more than ever, your subscription allows us to continue to honor that commitment. We hope you agree and support us with a subscription.

We hope you and your family remain safe during this public health crisis that is affecting all aspects of our lives and community. We are all in this together.

Sincerely,
The Newsday Team

Your satisfaction is important to us. If you're not happy with your subscription, you may cancel at any time.

This 52-week introductory offer is only valid for new Nassau, Suffolk and Queens subscribers who have not received Newsday home delivery in the past 60 days. You will be billed or your credit card will be charged in advance of each 8-week billing period. Any payment received will be first applied to any inactive account you have with a balance owing. At the end of the introductory period, delivery and billing will continue unless you contact Newsday to cancel delivery by calling 1-800-NEWSDAY. If you do not notify us to cancel, delivery and billing will continue at Newsday's then-current home delivery renewal rate. Savings calculation based on the cover price. All subscriptions include Premium Day editions, which will be charged at a rate of up to $7.49, in addition to the cost of that day's delivery. All new Newsday print subscriptions are subject to a $5.00 activation fee. The activation fee will be added to your first bill or your credit card will be charged at the time of your first subscription payment. The activation fee will also apply to existing subscriptions that are stopped for non-payment and then restarted once payment is received. Newsday reserves the right to change and/or waive the activation fee at any time. Please see newsday.com/hdterms for more information. Please respond today.
